Give Control to God

As we go through our daily lives, we often get a false sense that we are in complete control of the difficulties we face and can control their outcomes. We often possess the attitude that "I've got this" or "I can take care of this." It's in our human nature to have a desire to "handle things" ourselves and when the outcome goes well, we have a sense of accomplishment that we took care of it on our own. However, when the outcome goes poorly, we often get frustrated and continue to attack the problem on our own because we've been taught to never give up. Does this scenario sound familiar? Whether the outcome went well or the outcome went poorly, we really didn't have complete control.

As faithful Christians and students of God's word, we know that God is in control and that we need to ask God to help us through these difficult situations and pray that His will be done. Turning things over to God and accepting the outcome of difficult situations we face, when we know we've done everything we can, is now bearable. If fact, it's comforting to know that God is in control. It lowers our anxieties and our frustrations which brings us peace knowing that God is helping us. Paul assures us of this in Philippians 4:6-7 - 6 Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; 7 and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

We need to put our trust in the Lord and He will direct our paths - Proverbs 3:5-6

5 Trust in the Lord with all your heart,
And lean not on your own understanding;
6 In all your ways acknowledge Him,
And He shall direct your paths.
