Barnabas—Son of Encouragement

In Acts 11, we encounter Barnabas being sent to Antioch from the church in Jerusalem. They sent him because there were people sharing the gospel with non-Jewish people which was something new. Cornelius' conversion was just recorded in Acts 10. Who were these people preaching the gospel to the Gentiles? They were from the dispersion recorded in Acts 4 that came about because of the severe persecution of the church. These particular men that were preaching in Antioch were from Cyprus and Cyrene (v. 20) and they had the hand of the Lord with them (v. 21) showing His approval.

What did Barnabas see when he went to Antioch? He saw the grace of God (v. 23). What was his reaction? He was glad. What did he do? He encouraged them. What exactly did he encourage them to do? He encouraged them to intentionally purpose or decide to continue, literally to cleave to, the Lord.

Why did he do this? This is important for us to know why we should imitate Barnabas as he (and Paul) imitates Christ, (1 Corinthians 11:1). He did it because he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith. God recognized Barnabas' goodness, specifically, he remarks about it in regard to his encouraging words to continue with the Lord. What was the end result of this behavior that God recognized as "good"? A great many people were added to the Lord.

Being like Barnabas results in people being added to the Lord. I want to be like Barnabas, how about you?

Remember, I love you and want to go to heaven with you.
Pat
