Thank you

"Members of Chase Park Church of Christ,
Your prayers and support have been a true reminder of God's grace. Thank you for the cards, food, visits, flowers. I thank God for you every time I think of you. Philippians 1-3. Yours in Christ,"

Freida Sadler

"Chase Park Church,
Thank you for praying for our family! We appreciate the ladies that prepared food. Our lives have struggled with Troy's passing and it will be better with prayers and God's blessings. Life is short and we all need God on our side. Thanks to each member and we hope to return soon. Love,"

Doris, Johnny, & Steve Campbell

God's Promises Through the Prophets

Isaiah 55:10-11 reads, "10For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, 11So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it."

In the book of Isaiah, Isaiah is selected as a prophet of God. His mission was to be God's herald to a nation who was "deaf and blind" (6:10). For years Israel was on the decline and had rejected God. Therefore, God instructs Isaiah to deliver His message to the people. Isaiah tells Israel that God is sovereign and judgment is coming. As a matter of fact, Israel would be conquered. Yet there would be one, the Messiah, who would not forsake His people and would serve as the Savior.

All happened to Israel just as Isaiah spoke. In the verses above we see that God's words are not empty. His words are truth and steadfast. Although the news to Israel seemed like gloom at first, the ending was a thing of beauty. In the final chapters, there is hope for Israel and humanity. The Servant, aka Jesus Christ, would come and build an everlasting kingdom. (9:6-7) This is what we know as the church today. Thus, God's words and promises still ring true today. By His word we continue to prosper and they inspire our hearts.
