Remembering My Friend, Dennis...

Last weekend our dear brother, Dennis Lawson, passed from this life into eternity. Dennis was a wonderful elder, husband, dad, friend, and much more, to so many. Above all, Dennis Lawson was a Christian.

I first met Dennis in October of 2020. I had come to Chase Park to interview for the Youth Ministry position. After being hired at the start of 2021, my work as Youth Minister began. It was at this moment, my relationship with Dennis and the elders began too.

Looking back at the years I was able to spend with Dennis; there are two characteristics I've admired about him. First, Dennis was a patient individual. In regard to our elder and minister relationship, Dennis was always a patient shepherd. In our elders' meetings and conversations, Dennis was willing to listen. He was never quick to speak, instead, he was patient and had a desire to help. I appreciated how easy it was to speak with Dennis and admired his patience.

The second characteristic I appreciated about Dennis was his kindness. Last year Dennis approached me about wanting to be more involved with the teens. Dennis was very appreciative of our teens at Chase Park. So, Dennis decided he wanted to help with M4. Monday Morning Motivational Message, aka M4, is a time where we get up early, fix breakfast, feed our teens, and start the day with a Bible message. Dennis would arrive at 6 a.m. and be eager to help. His goal was to encourage and spread kindness to all who came... and that he did. This was only one instance of Dennis' kindness.

Dennis Lawson was a great Christian man. He loved the church family at Chase Park. He was patient and kind to us. He was my friend and mentor. I'm so appreciative of his service, character, and friendship. Dennis is now enjoying his eternal reward. I'm sure he was welcomed by another friend of ours, Curtis Hill. May God continue to bless us with a loving eldership and men like Dennis. Continue to encourage Mrs. Janet and the Lawson family.
