Lads to Leaders

You may see a lot of empty spots at this morning's worship because a large group of families is in Nashville for the Lads to Leaders convention. They have spent the weekend surrounded by thousands of other Christian families participating in events from Bible Bowl to puppets, speech, song-leading, debate, and much more. Lads to Leaders is an amazing program and the annual convention is a special event for those who are involved in it. Convention is hectic and tiresome, and can even be frustrating at times, but it is also one of the most encouraging and uplifting weekends of the year for those who are involved in it. For many, many years, L2L has helped thousands of young people, including many of our own, to develop their talents and grow in their leadership for the purpose of serving the Lord and His church.

Our Lads to Leaders program here at Chase Park is in a state of transition. We have seen many of our young people graduate out of the program in recent years while seeing an influx of new families with young children who have entered the program. It is very exciting to see so many children who are enthusiastic about learning to lead in different areas of service. Chase Park and our L2L program certainly has a very bright future! Andrea and I no longer have kids in the program, but we still love to be a part of it and attend the convention to cheer on all the amazing Chase Park kids.

I would like to take a moment to thank all of those who make Lads to Leaders happen. Thank you to Joel Heady and Tyler Rosenblum in their first year of overseeing our program. They've done a great job. Thank you to all of the coaches and event coordinators who have worked to help our kids learn and grow. Thank you to the parents—the program's unsung heroes who work so hard behind the scenes to help their children prepare, and practice in their different events. Thank you to the elders and other adults who support this program in different ways throughout the year. And of course, thank you most of all to all the kids who work so hard (and have fun doing it) to learn and improve their skills each year. You are an inspiration to us all.
