Thank you

"Early May 1960, Bobby and I, along with our two-year-old son Steve, moved to Huntsville. We immediately attended the Memorial Parkway Church of Christ and placed membership. Our three sons, Steve, Aaron, and Eric, grew up attending there. This was a special loving congregation. When we moved to where we are now and became Chase Park Church of Christ, we are still with those same people, plus so many new members. Each person is special to Bobby and me. Thank you for so many expressions of kindness during the death of our dear grandson, David, son of Steve and Karen, his brother, Ben and his sister, Leah. The calls, cards, hugs, crying with us, smiles, texts, e-mails, attending the celebration of life/funeral, and especially the prayers mean so much to us. This has been so difficult, our heart hurts. Psalm 34:18 tells us, 'The Lord is near to those who have a broken heart.' Our children and grandchildren are the light of our life. Please continue to remember Bobby and me, and all our family in your prayers. Always know, this congregation is a special important part of our life. We love all of you and thank you for loving us."

Tiny Corder

"Dear Chase Park Family,
Thank you for the outpouring of love and support that you've shown to us since the loss of our beloved son David. Your prayers and words of comfort mean more than you can know. Love,"

Steve, Karen, Leah, & Ben Corder

"Our Chase Park Family,
The love and support you have shown our family has made the difficult times so much easier for us. The prayers for our family during Ben's illness and recovery, and Karen's cancer surgery and treatments, were heard and answered. The love, prayers, and being there for us during David's illness and passing helped us more than words can express. The cards we received and your words of comfort have helped us through the tough spots. We know we are part of a very special family here at Chase Park. Love,"

I found this article about sharing our faith and thought it would be helpful.

Sharing Your Faith Authentically

In a world that often feels divided by beliefs, sharing your faith can be one of the most meaningful ways to connect with others. Expressing what gives your life purpose isn't about winning arguments—it's about offering hope, love, and perspective. Done with humility and respect, it can deepen relationships and plant seeds of transformation.

Why Do It?

Faith shapes how we view challenges, relationships, and the bigger questions of life: Why are we here? What happens after death? How should we treat one another? When shared thoughtfully, you can provide comfort to someone struggling or spark a meaningful conversation. Remember, sharing isn't about pressure or conversion quotas; it's an invitation to something "better" than what people are experiencing now, in this life.

Practical Ways to Share

- Live It First - The strongest lesson you can teach is a changed life. People notice consistency between what you believe and how you act.
- Listen Before Speaking - Ask genuine questions about others' beliefs and struggles. "What gives you hope during hard times?" opens doors. When people feel heard, they become more open to hearing you.
- Share Your Story - Personal stories resonate deeply. Instead of abstract theology, say: "When I faced that loss, my faith reminded me I wasn't alone." Vulnerability and empathy when possible, builds bridges.
- Use Everyday Interactions - A conversation over coffee, a note of encouragement, or inviting someone to a service or church event can be powerful.
- Respect Boundaries - Not everyone is ready or interested. Gracefully accept "no thanks" because forced sharing often backfires and damages credibility and might make it impossible to reach them when they are ready.

Common Challenges and Encouragement

Fear of rejection or offending others holds many back. That's natural. Focus on planting seeds rather than harvesting results—you may never see the full impact.

Remember, I love you and want to go to heaven with you.
