Sometimes We Laugh Together, Sometimes We Cry

This weekend has been a very active one for many of us at Chase Park. On Friday there were many who came and expressed their condolences to the Kilpatrick family as we celebrated the life of Jerry Kilpatrick. Jerry was one of a kind. In our short time together, we enjoyed some great laughs, conversations, bluegrass festivals and worship. Jerry could light up a room and you were bound to leave smiling after visiting with him. As we visited with the family and listened to memories about Jerry you couldn't help but smile. There were also tears that flowed as we know saying goodbye to our friend is difficult. Yet Jerry was a faithful servant of God and his reward is now being enjoyed. Our prayers and encouragement turn to Mrs. Judy and the family as we comfort them.

On Saturday, I got to have some fun with our high school students as we enjoyed the High School Formal. Several parents decorated, cooked, and put together a wonderful banquet for our students to express our appreciation for them. It was great to see our students all dressed up and sharing memories together. The food was good, desserts were awesome, and the company was the best.

This afternoon we will assemble together at Sharon Johnston Park for an evening of fun, good food, and worship. I love going to the park and being together. It's nice to just sit back and share with one another. Singing under that pavilion takes me back to Bible Camp and how sweet it is to be with God's family praising him. It's going to be a great evening and we hope you come to enjoy it with us.

As we wrap up a weekend filled with emotion, support, and family, I am reminded of that old song, "We're Part of the Family". As I look over the events of the weekend, I am reminded of the words written in the chorus...

"Sometimes we laugh together,
 Sometimes we cry,
 Sometimes we share together,
 Heartaches and sighs,
 Sometimes we dream together,
 Of how it will be,
 When we all get to Heaven,
 God's family."

May God continue to bless us at Chase Park as we show our love and support to one another.
