Chase Park Evangelism Update September 2025

Brothers and Sisters,

We have been blessed with a lot of visitors over the summer. You have done a wonderful job of being “evangelistic” in your welcoming them to our congregation. This is the first step for any successful congregation; to master the ability to make people feel welcome and valued. You guys are great at that, and I appreciate it. We currently have four studies going and would love for you to be praying for those.

You probably have heard about and seen the slide for our upcoming Special Emphasis Meeting with Don Blackwell, on Wednesday and Thursday, October 15-16. Don is the Executive Director of the Gospel Broadcasting Network and an outstanding gospel preacher. He will be speaking to us from his own experiences about “Life’s Darkest Hours.” On Wednesday night he will address “Suffering as a Christian Through Life’s Darkest Hours.” On Thursday night he will be speaking about “Confidence as a Christian Through Life’s Darkest Hours.”

Don had a bad ATV accident a little over 6 years ago that left him a paraplegic. He will be here in a specially designed wheelchair. He has been on our prayer list for a possible new technological device that shows promise to help people with catastrophic spine injuries.

This will be an opportunity to invite people who are struggling with all types of issues to hear from someone who can empathize with them. I believe it could be a great tool for reaching the lost because many people in our world are facing real and debilitating struggles. They might be encouraged to see and hear how a faithful Christian has made it through, so far, in his own difficulties.

We will be doing extensive advertising, as well as going door to door on Saturday, October 11 to invite folks. Please give prayerful consideration to being involved with the door knocking and make plans to be here both nights, October 15 and 16. You will not be disappointed.

Remember, I love you and want to go to heaven with you.
