Thank you

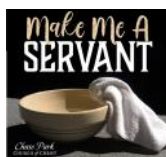

"Dear Chase Park Family,
I am so thankful to be a part of the Chase Park family. You were such a blessing to Fred and me for the three years of his failing health. The stacks and stacks of cards. The acts and words of kindness, but especially the prayers that helped carry us through. Thank you for all who took time out of your busy day to come be with me at his visitation and his celebration of life. You were the wind beneath my wings. I love each and everyone of you. Keep praying for me."

December 2025 Evangelism Update

1 Peter 3:15

2025 has been a good year for our outreach efforts both here and abroad. We had a very successful campaign to Bono, Arkansas, while working with the Lawson Road church of Christ. We also had a successful effort with our special emphasis meeting with Don Blackwell from the Gospel Broadcasting Network.

In addition to those efforts, many people here at Chase Park have been praying for and encouraging their friends, family, and coworkers to “come and see” what our Lord has to offer at Chase Park. Many of those people have decided to make Chase Park their home congregation. A big part of those decisions is how warm and welcome you make them feel when they visit. This also makes my job so much easier, when the whole congregation is involved inviting and welcoming guests and loved ones.

Several people have obeyed the gospel, and I mentioned to our elders that it feels like it did before Covid hit. The fields are indeed “white unto harvest” and we need to take full advantage of the interest that many people are showing in spiritual matters. The last six months have included many personal bible studies and several of those studies have resulted in people obeying the gospel through baptism.

Please keep up the good work as we live out our theme of “Sharing Hope, Changing Lives” which came from 1 Peter 3:15. “But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear; ...”

God bless, and remember, I want to go to heaven with you.
