Thank you

"Dear Church Family,

Words can't express enough how much your continued love and prayers meant to me during Tom's illness. Thank you also for the kind and generous gifts of food you sent for the family, flowers and your cards of sympathy and encouragement. They have been a blessing to me and help me get through this difficult time. Love,"

"Dear Chase Park Family,

Thank you for the love and support you have shown to our family in the loss of Jerry. All of your prayers, cards, texts, and calls of encouragement have helped so much during this difficult time. The flowers you sent and your kindness were much appreciated. In Christian love,"

Mildred, Jim, and Paul Smelser

"Dear Chase Park Family,

Thank you to everyone who helped during Joe's hospital stay and passing. Thank you to everyone who stayed with him, ran errands, for the food and everything that was done for our family.

I will be moving Easter weekend to Opelika to be close to the girls. Memorial Parkway/Chase Park has been such an integral part of our lives. It is where Greg grew up and then where we raised our girls. Our church family has celebrated with us and also mourned with us the loss of Gladys, Greg, and now Joe. Chase Park will always have a special place in our hearts and I will miss you all dearly in this next chapter of life. In Christian love,"

Joan Parker

Meditate On These Things

“Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things.” (Philippians. 4:8)

2023 has been a difficult year so far in many ways for the Chase Park family. We have had so many families to be touched by death and serious illness in the last three months. Our hearts have hurt with and for them because their losses are ours, too. Times like this can take a toll on a congregation’s emotional and spiritual health as the pain and sorrow of loss blind us to the continual blessings of God. That’s why the Bible encourages us to meditate on the good and positive things that God has done for us and through us. You see, despite the struggles of this year, God has blessed us in wonderful ways and there are many things to be excited about. Consider just a few:

- We have welcomed some new families to Chase Park this year and there are several others who are considering joining this great family.
- We have added a new brother and sister to the church through baptism lately and look forward to others in the near future.
- We have had some special Sundays (e.g. Friend’s Day and Special Emphasis Day) that have seen great attendance and very uplifting times of worship and fellowship.
- More and more of our programs are getting back to work and people are getting busy in doing the Lord’s work.
- Even in the deaths that we have experienced, we have rejoiced with precious souls who have realized their goal and desire of heaven.

Yes, God is blessing Chase Park and the future is as bright as the promises of God. So take heart, give thanks to God, and rejoice in the goodness of God toward us.
