Thank you

“Chase Park Family,

Thank you in helping me mend after receiving my new hip. I am so blessed with such a loving church family, but I regret that I have not been able to be by your sides during your time of joy and/or sorrows but only in my thoughts and prayers. I have missed you and love you.”

“Chase Park Family,

Thank you oh so much for the many kindnesses and acts of care extended to us during our illness. We are so blessed by the loving family God has blessed us with. We appreciate the calls, texts, cards, food, supplements, and attention you gave us when we were sick. ## Update on Local Evangelism—Barnabas Project

After having gotten off to such a great start we were hit with the COVID bug at Chase Park and in my house. We were quarantined for two weeks and then we went out of town for a few days. I am thankful to be able to say that the evangelism efforts continued even while we were out of pocket. There have been several ongoing studies and we will have, Lord willing, started a new study Thursday with three new prospects. Also, we have restarted several of the studies we were most of the way through in late July and early August.

In addition, our congregation has now sent over 200 compassion cards, and these are just the ones I am aware of. I know there are many others that are being mailed directly and we are thankful for all your efforts to encourage and empathize with those on our Barnabas List. The children's ministry got together and made some cards for us to send to our prospects. They are on the Barnabas table for anyone to use. They are very colorful and would brighten anybody's day.

Last Sunday we started our New Converts class with many of those adults who have been baptized over the last two years. We are hoping and praying that this will be both encouraging and enlightening, with the purpose of continuing the teaching they received before they became Christians and answering questions of a spiritual nature they might still have.

I simply could not be more proud of the congregation here at Chase Park, you have enthusiastically engaged with the local outreach program and for that I am thankful. Lord willing, we will see some tangible results from the efforts soon.

Remember, I love you and want to go to heaven with you.

Pat
