What the World Needs Now...

In 1965, Jackie DeShannon stepped up to the microphone and sang “What the World Needs Now.” Many of you probably know the lyrics to the song as it goes, “What the world needs now is love, sweet love.” It became a polarizing song in 1965 due to the Vietnam War. Much of America was divided by the war, protests were taking place, and there was unrest in society. It was this song that seemed to put things in perspective.

Today we find ourselves in a similar time. It seems our country is divided into two sides. As a Christian, I invite you to think about “What the World Needs Now.” The Bible says in Romans 13:8, 10, “⁸ Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. ... ¹⁰ Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.” The world needs to see and experience the love of Jesus. As Jackie sang, “What the world needs now is love, sweet love.” The love of Christ compels us to do great things. So let’s love our neighbor like Christ did.
