Exposure 2025 Youth Camp Review

What a wonderful weekend we enjoyed at Exposure Youth Camp! On December 27-30, Exposure Youth Camp took place at the VBC. This year we had 3,100+ registered for the camp. Congregations throughout the Southeast came, and even congregations from Virginia and Ohio! Our theme was Reawaken Wonder as students enjoyed a time of worship, Spiritual Challenge Sessions, team time, youth group time, friendship, Atrium singing, and more. By the time the long weekend ended there were approximately 140 responses and 20+ baptisms to the gospel of Christ.

I want to take a moment and brag on our Chase Park crew. Chase Park had 38 attendees for Exposure Youth Camp. This group consisted of CPYG students, college students, and chaperones. Our group was excellent! I'm so thankful for their zeal, encouragement, and behavior at EYC. My favorite time of EYC came around 10:00 p.m. each night. During our youth group time, our Chase Park crew shared lessons they learned from each day at EYC. It was impressive to see all the notebooks and notes our crew had taken and the applications made from each day. It was a great time of spiritual reflection and growth.

Will Tucker

P.S. If you would like to listen to the lessons presented at Exposure Youth Camp, you can find them on Exposure Youth Camp's Facebook page.
