Library News

Two books for youth, OUT OF DARKNESS and INTO THE LIGHT, both written by Josh Harden and published by Apologetics Press, were recently placed in the library by Joel Heady.

These fictional novels are about a group of young people who call themselves "the illuminators" and use a special flashlight to discover the truth about God, the Bible, the world and themselves.

Moses' Love for God's People

Our daily bible reading last Wednesday included reading Exodus 30-32. At the end of Exodus 32, Moses has come down from Mt. Sinai where he had received the Ten Commandments from God. When he descended to where Aaron was, he saw the Israelites worshipping the golden calf that Aaron had made for them. He listened to Aaron's excuses about what had happened, and he was furious. He threw down the tablets containing the commandments of God (v. 19), punished the people by melting down and grinding up the golden calf and added water to it and made them drink it. He then asked for those who were on the Lord's side to join him which the Levites did. He sent the sons of Levi out and they killed about 3,000 of their fellow Israelites at Moses' command (v. 28).

Moses was mad, real mad... And yet...

In verse 30, Moses comes to the defense of the very people he was so angry with, attempting to make atonement for them with God. He petitions God to forgive them for their grievous sin of making a false God and worshipping it.

And then Moses did something that seems very hard to understand, he tells God this,

"Oh, these people have committed a great sin, and have made for themselves a god of gold!" Yet now, if You will forgive them their sin - but if not,

I pray, blot me out of Your book which You have written."

What did Moses just do? He offered up his eternal soul for the sake of the Israelite people who had just rebelled against God and fashioned and worshipped a false god. This is on par with Abraham offering Isaac as a sacrifice to God. We find it hard to understand how they could have been willing to do these things.

I pray that we never have to face what they faced... I pray that we never have to choose between our family and our God...I pray that God's people never so turn away from God that we become as furious as Moses did and think drastic measures are the only answer. My 21st century application is this, if Moses could be so concerned that he would offer up his place in heaven to gain forgiveness for those who reject God, shouldn't we be concerned enough to offer up an invitation to services or a bible study to those who do not know God?

God bless, and remember, I love you and want to go to heaven with you.

Pat
